

Instructions for Literary Period Assignment

1. One person in your group needs to create a Google Slides presentation and share it with the other group members and share it with me.
(amy.lister@bufordcityschools.org)
2. Using the Internet and your textbook, research your assigned literary period and create a Google slides presentation that includes the following information.

(Tip: make sure you search “American” with your time period – like “American Romanticism” – because some of these literary movements existed in other countries as well.)

Include the following information:

- Title slide with literary period (plus the date range) + group members' first and last names (1 slide)
- 3 events going on in history during that time period (1 slide)
- 3 traits of the literature of that time period (1 slide)
- 3 writers from that time period (1 slide)
- In addition, include one image that is relevant to your subject on each slide.
