

Things to consider about your summer reading book

- Purpose / point – What is the writer’s main goal? What is the main point that the writer seems to be making?
- Structure of the book – What effect does this have on the novel?
- Tone and Diction
- Author perspective – Through what lens is the writer telling this story?
- Powerful passages or moments from the text